Steve Pettit, “Walking in the Spirit, Part 1” (Galatians 5:13)

1. When was Galatians written (in comparison to the rest of the NT)?
2. What was the “first doctrinal battlefield of the NT”?
3. What was Paul’s tone in the writing of the book? Why?
4. What problem was Paul addressing in vs. 13 as the opposite extreme to living under the law?
5. What two key words sum up the human and divine sides of the salvation experience?
6. Distinguish between God’s outward call and inward call on the life of a believer.
7. Describe the “bondage” of being brought under the Law.
8. How, then, do we define Christian liberty?
9. What else did Christ do when He set us free from the bondage of sin’s curse?
10. What two things are involved in Christ’s provision of freedom?
