Steve Pettit, “Walking in the Spirit, Part 3” (Galatians 5:16-18)

1. What is the only thing that “works” for Christian behavior?
2. What does the word “walk” mean?
3. What do we naturally ask in response to the command to walk in the Spirit?
4. What DOES the phrase “walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfill the lust of the flesh” mean?
What does it NOT mean?
5. What exciting hope does this truth create in the heart of a believer?
6. Describe the civil war going on in a Christian’s soul.
7. What are the two opposing results that arise from yielding to the flesh and yielding to the Spirit?
8. In which two areas is the conflict with the flesh particularly manifested?
9. Differentiate between “walking in the Spirit” and “being led of the Spirit.”
10. What are the two questions we must ask about the principle of not being under the Law?
